

Position Title: Cultural Resources Specialist

Company Name: YAHS GS LLC

Position Type: Part-time employee

Work Location: Richland, WA

Job Description:

This Position will function as a Cultural Resource Specialist providing support to the U.S. Department of Energy Richland Operations Office. The successful candidate will support a variety of planning documents, studies, and environmental documents, and will assist in the development of cultural resource components of general management plans, often involving complex cultural resources. These duties require the candidate to have and apply a knowledge and understanding of laws, regulations, policies, standards, and guidelines regarding the preservation and protection of cultural resources, as well as Department of Energy and environmental compliance processes, policies, guidelines, and procedures.

Qualifications:

- A. BS or BA in Archaeology / Anthropology / Cultural Resources Management, or closely related field. Masters degree preferred.
- B. Knowledge of the laws and regulations pertaining to cultural resources and natural resource operations on federal lands (Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act, the Archeological Resources Protection Act and the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act). Must have knowledge in cultural resource laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders, and the ability to apply this knowledge to cultural resource management and environmental compliance projects.
- C. Minimum of 3 years of experience directly related to the position. Requires experience in explaining/interpreting/applying laws and regulations regarding cultural resource management, e.g. National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA), and government-to-government relationships with American Indian tribes.
- D. Ability to work well as a member of diverse, multi-disciplinary teams on planning, cultural resource management, and compliance projects.
- E. Skill in oral and written communications to effectively contribute to planning and environmental compliance projects. Ability to support government to government consultations with Native American Tribes. Ability to contribute to planning and environmental compliance documents.
